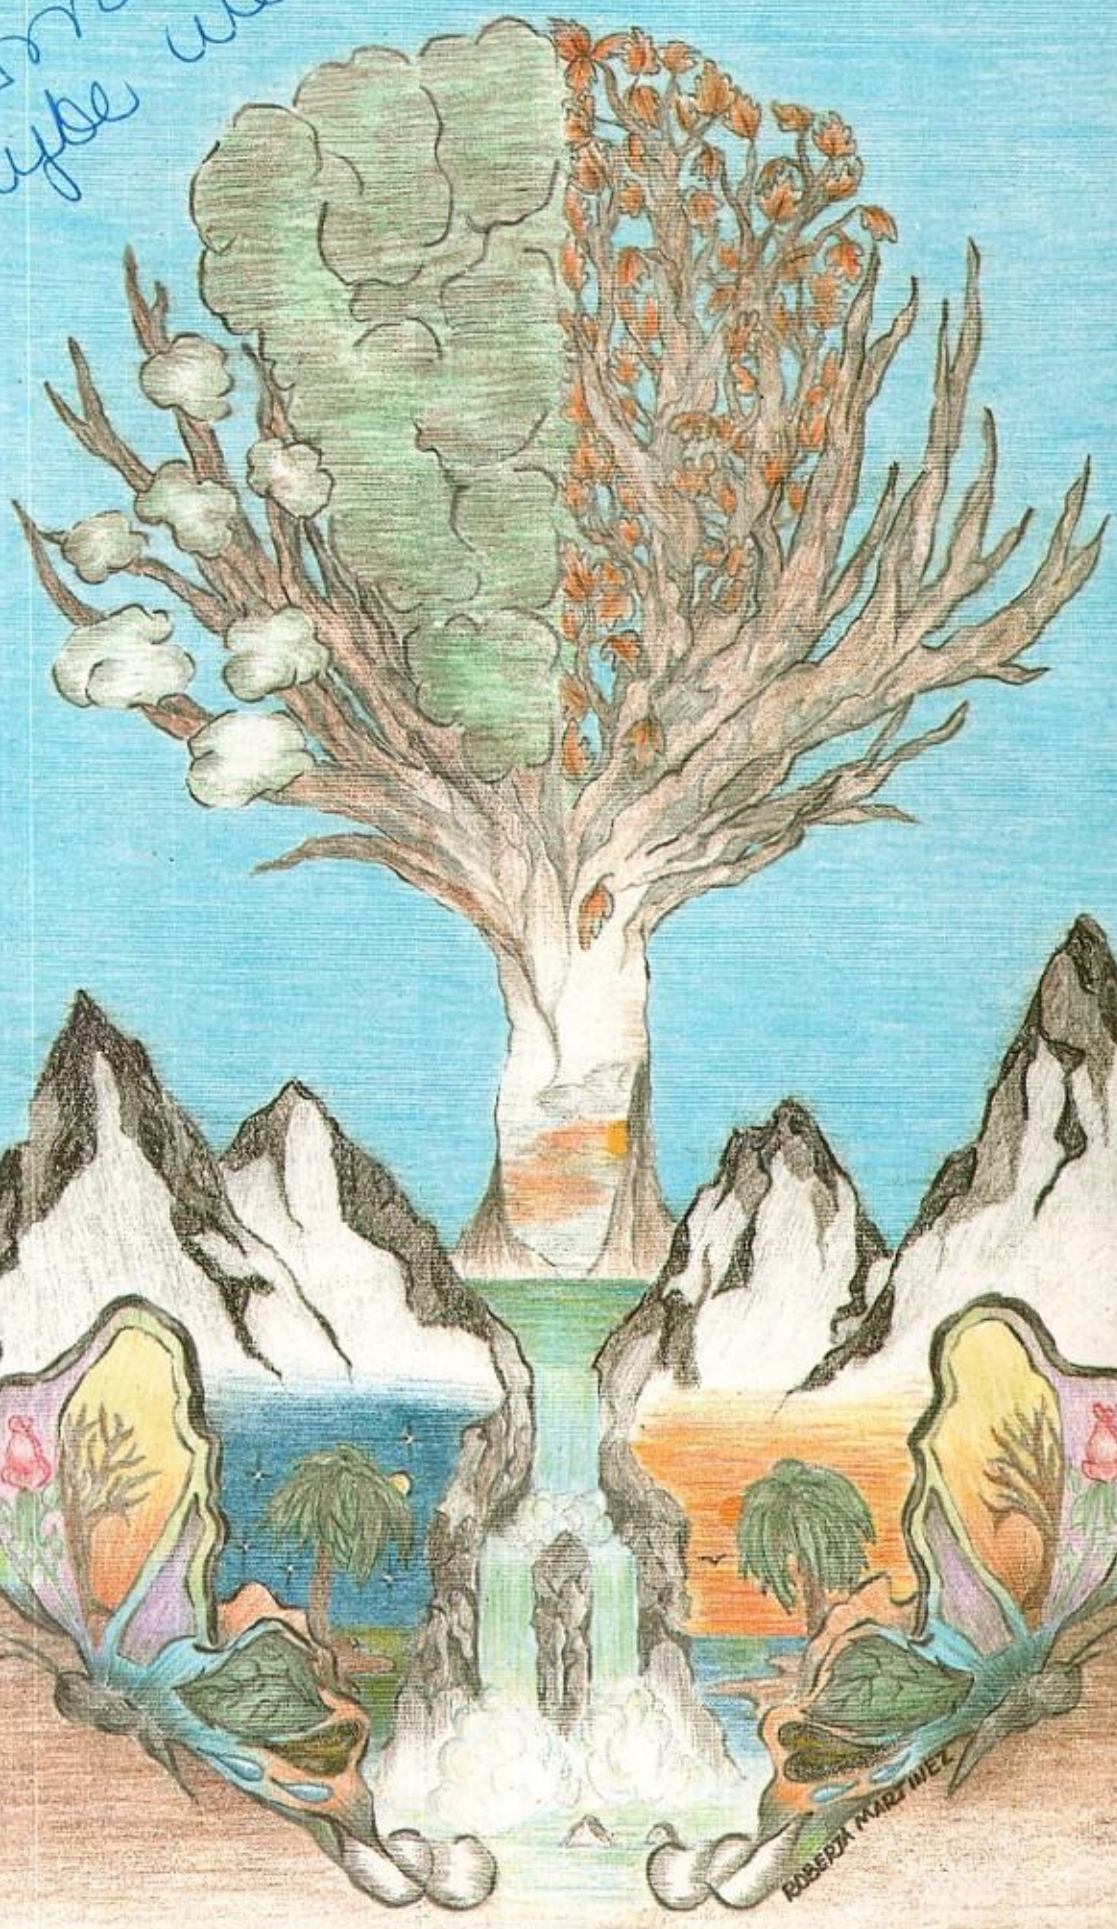
A SEASON IN TIME....



All things have their season and in their times all things pass under heaven,
A time to be born and a time to die.

To Linda
To a girl that always Laughs.
I hope you have a good summe and stay out of trouble.
I hope I see more of you next year
Love
Susan.

A time to plant and a time to pull up that which is planted,
A time to kill and a time to heal.

A time to destroy and a time to build,
A time to weep and a time to laugh,
A time to mourn and a time to dance,

A time to scatter stones and a time to gather,
A time to embrace and a time to be far from embraces,

A time to gain and a time to lose.
A time to keep and a time to cast away.
A time to rend and a time to sew.

A time of silence and a time to speak.
A time to love and a time of hatred, a time of war and of peace.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

Like scattered leaves shed in the fall, we too must part from the one place that has nurtured us and hope merely to be able to touch someone or something in such a way that we will be remembered even though only fragments remain.

Gabi Parente

As the seasons change to keep in rhythm with nature we too are in the process of changing to enrich the present and to insure an ideal future.

Gabi Parente

We've lived through this year as a season in time like a brief moment in passing with memories never ceasing.

True friends do we hold
Very dear in our hearts
Hoping together, we will change like the seasons to grow, to learn, to share, to be unique.

Happy times, that shall never be erased Implant a seedling in our soul
that shall blossom
From now 'til forever.

Sadness shall be forgotten for bitterness sows no seeds, has no roots
Only memories of laughter of smiles of joy shall be remembered
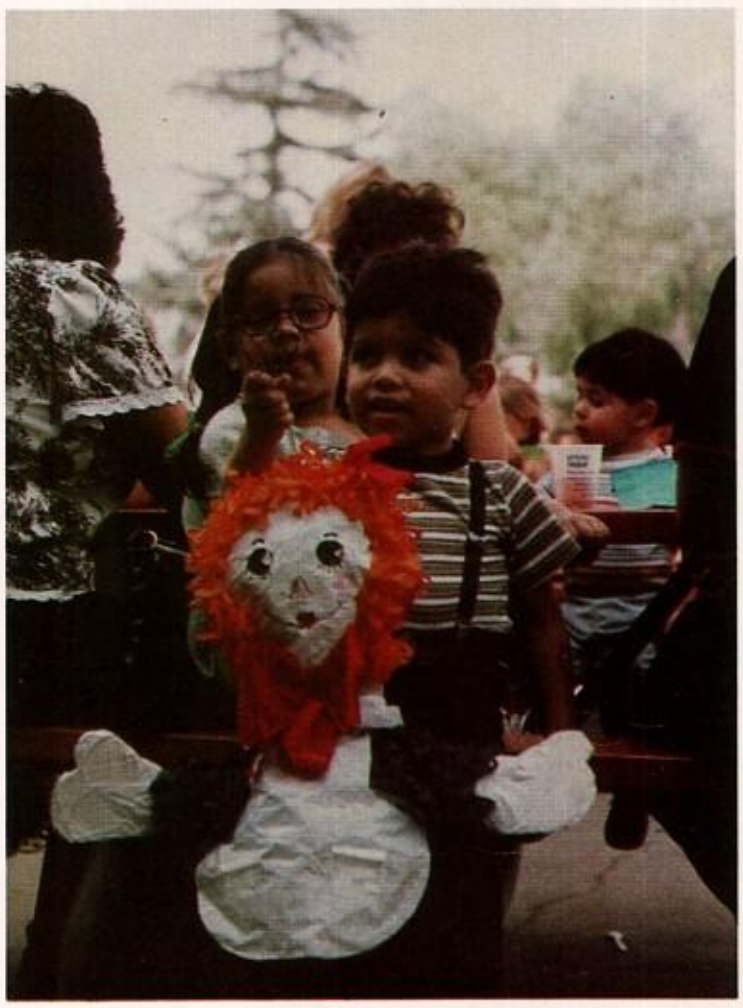
From this season — to our last.
Angela Arrosagaray



The days pass by too quickly,
And we're coming to the end,
Of many priceless memories
Of happy times we've spent.

It is better to have loved and lost, than to never have loved at all.

And just be my friend.

Nicole Beatrice Arrachea

Maria Angela Arrosagaray

I don't want to listen to just what you say. I want to feel what you mean. I want to live from the inside out, not from the outside in, and one dream will set me free.

How can one measure friendship
The firm, warm clasp of a hand,
The comfort found in the welcome sound of the words, "I understand?"
So much of my life — the best of life
The things we truly treasure are these, the gifts of bound-depth beyond all earthly

Sing the song that tells it, praise the man who sells it.
You're alive, you might as well be glad.

It wasn't very long ago that we first walked down these halls Or stood alone at dances with our partners that were walls
We still recall the pride we felt in hearing our Big Sisters' name And I pray to God above that my Little Sis feels the same.

I pray that I have loved enough for the memories to last I tried to give her all my time but it seemed to go so fast
One day she was a stranger the next she was my friend
And then we all soon realized that all this had to end.

So I'll leave you with one thought before we have to part That there is a special place for you deep within my heart.

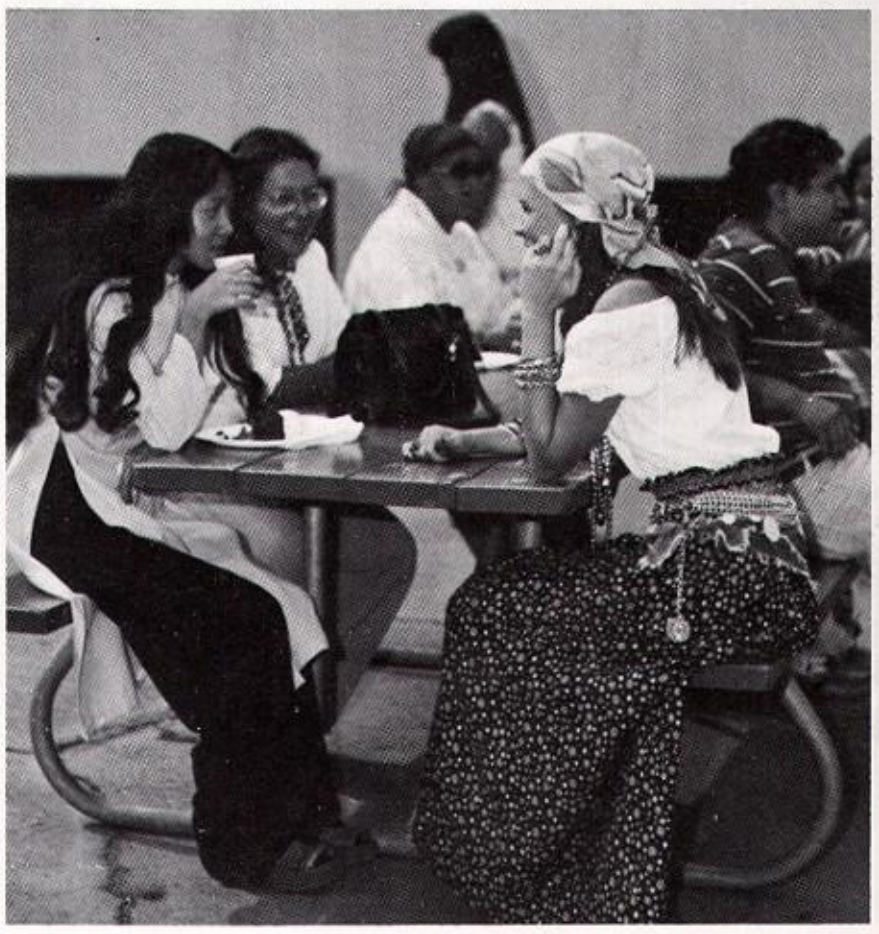
Hola

Hello

The sponge throw, Tahitian dancers and delicious sweets were just some of the scenes found at the World's Fair '78. People dressed in costumes from around the world gathered together for the exciting entertainment and fund-raising booths. As the annual Ice Cream Social came to a close, it left everyone with lots of spirit to continue the unique school year of 1978-79.



Homecoming 78 November 20

Excitement was the atmosphere that came from the stands as the 1978 Homecoming queen was announced. Gloria Sanchez, P.C. Senior, took over the reign as queen. This marked the fourth consecutive year that the queen was chosen from Pomona Catholic. The ceremony took place on the Damien football field followed by a parade of floats made by the four classes. On Saturday, November 21st, the Homecoming dance brought a close to the week's excitement of Homecoming activities.

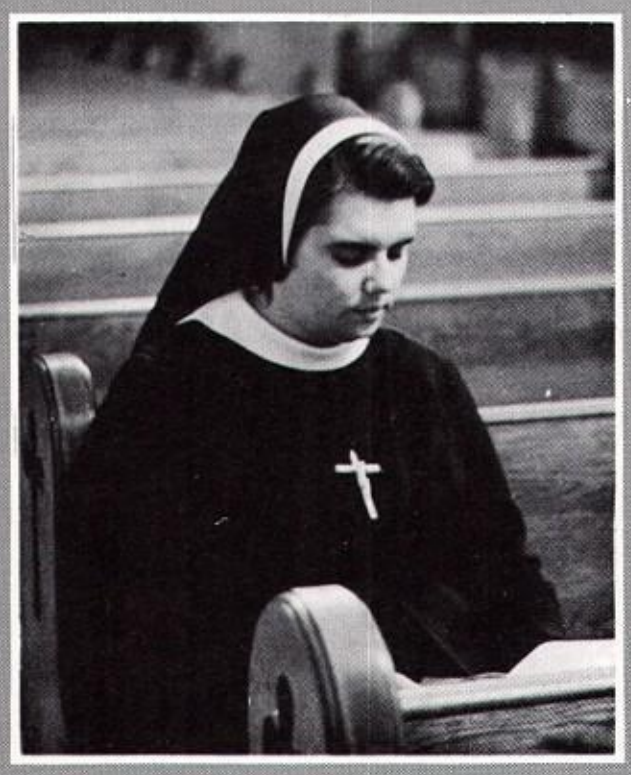
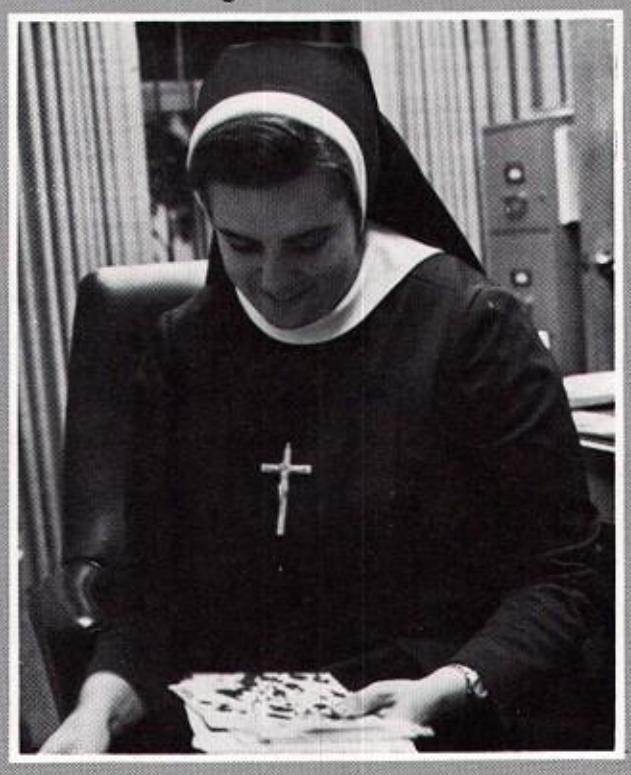
A Day in the Life



Sister Susan starts her day singing praise to God.



A message, in accordance with current activities, is chosen.

Being the principal of Pomona Catholic is no easy job. It entails a variety of different tasks. This includes informing the faculty daily via faculty mailboxes. Rushing slow students to class is sometimes necessary, especially on Monday! And of course, Sister Susan must keep in close contact with both the faculty and the students.

Sister Susan and her right arm colleague, Mrs. Rogan, discuss office business.

Three clubs meeting at the same time in the same place? Oh no!

"Please excuse the interruption."

of Sister Susan

n between her busy chedule, Sister takes ime out for lunch. But is the refrigerator mpty?

She generously shares unch with Sister Feliz and sits down to njoy her favorite drink, milk with nstant coffee on the ocks. Is that good!!??

Busy at her desk, Sister Susan prepares for her next meeting.

Dropping in on our A.S.B., Sister Susan gets a sneak preview of upcoming events.

Hmmm . . . Is everybody here?

Ay . . . Thumbs Up!

All I have seen teaches me to trust in God for all that is yet to be.

THE THRILL OF VICTORY AND THE AGONY OF DEFEAT

The P.C. Pacers played challenging volleyball games after reentering C.I.F. this year. The Pacers not only experienced victory, but also learned to accept defeat. Sportsmanship and enthusiasm were highly displayed by every player. It has been proven by the P.C. Pacers that they are dynamite and out-a-sight!

Back Row: Laurie Gaberich, Stephanie Gonzales, Marie Legarreta

The One, Two Soccer Kickoff

One of the world's most popular sports is Soccer, and it's catching on at P.C! Members of the AYSO are divided into two groups: the Spartans (16 — 18 years of age) and the Pacers (14 — 15 years of age). The Spartans were led by Mr. Bushor and assistant coach Mike McNamara. The Pacers were led by Mr. Whitridge and assistant coach Jerry Lynch.

Coach: Mr. Bill Whitridge

Pacers: Mary Dennis, Lia Smith, Kathy Pomeroy. Missing: Claire Miller and Dianna Whitridge.

POWDER PUFF

The Big Showdown

The big showdown between the Seniors and Juniors took place on Saturday, February 24, 1979, at 2:00 P.M., on the Damien turf. As the whistles blew, both sides attacked the field, as well as players, coaches, referees and bystanders. Adrenaline started pumping as players stared eye-to-eye across the scrimmage line. The first big action came when Crystal Nichol, a Senior, plowed through the Juniors' defensive line and put six on the scoreboard. Later, the Juniors came back with a touchdown pass to Staci Kawa, which tied the score. The fans were going wild. With less than two minutes left in the game, Mary LoPorto intercepted a pass and ran it in for a T.D. After recovering from tears, scrapes, hair-pulling, bruised egos, etc. it ended as a Senior victory!

Sidelined refs

BASKETBALL

Where did the ball go?

Jump, Jump, sky high!

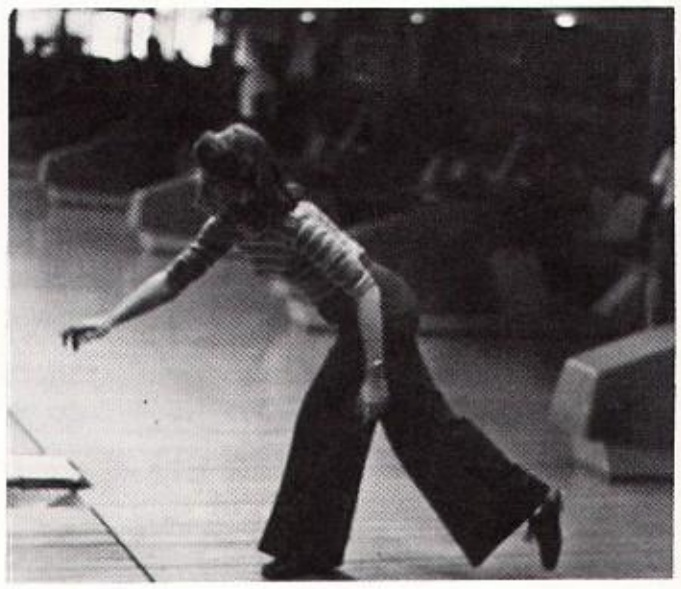
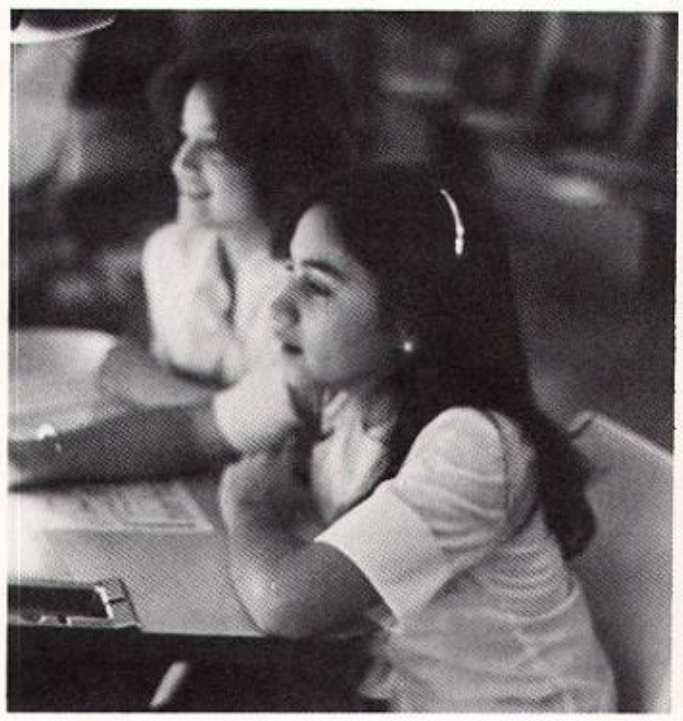
BASKETBALL — A SEASON IN TIME

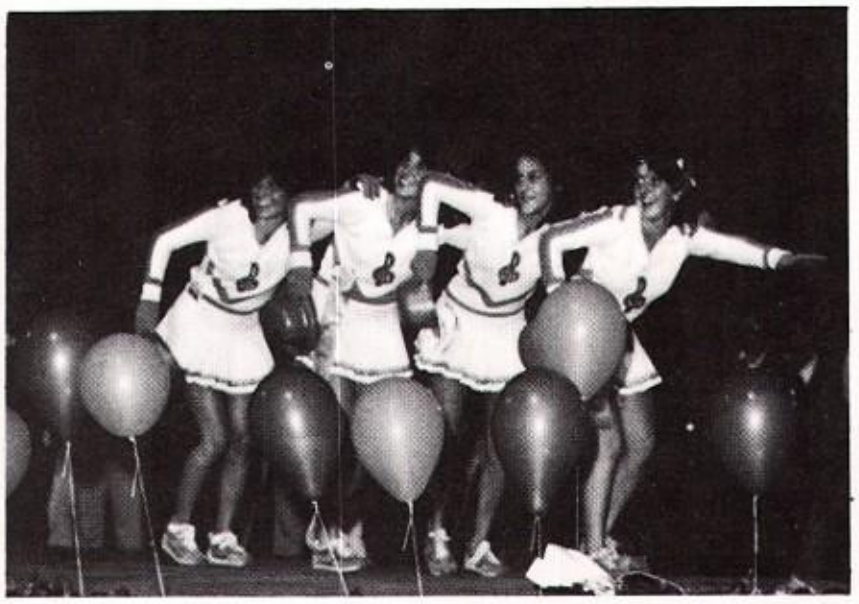
Basketball was not only a season of time but also a season of victories, and sometimes defeat. You probably have heard the saying "Time Passes," but not for the P.C. Pacers Basketball team. The Pacers played each moment to the best of their ability. The clock slowly ticked, bringing an end to a great basketball season in 1979.

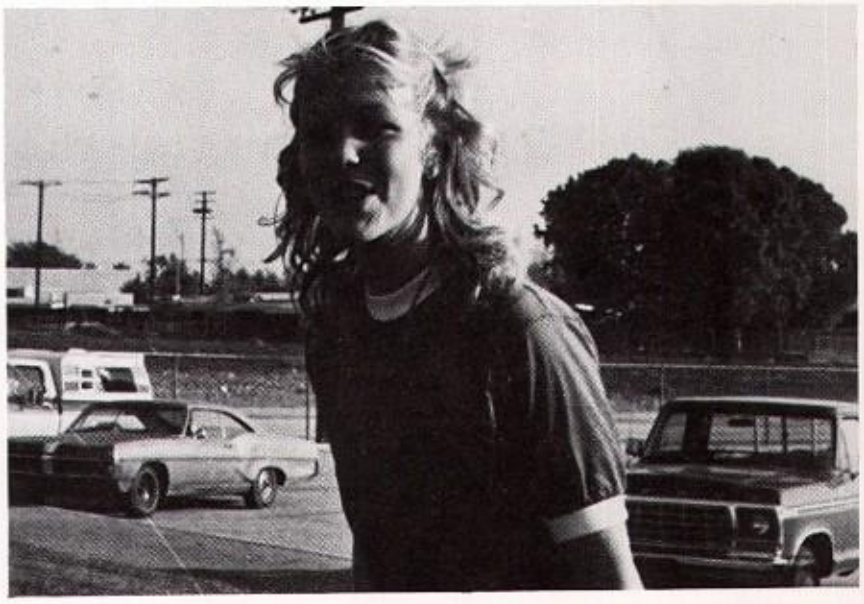
BOWLING INVASION OF BOWLERS

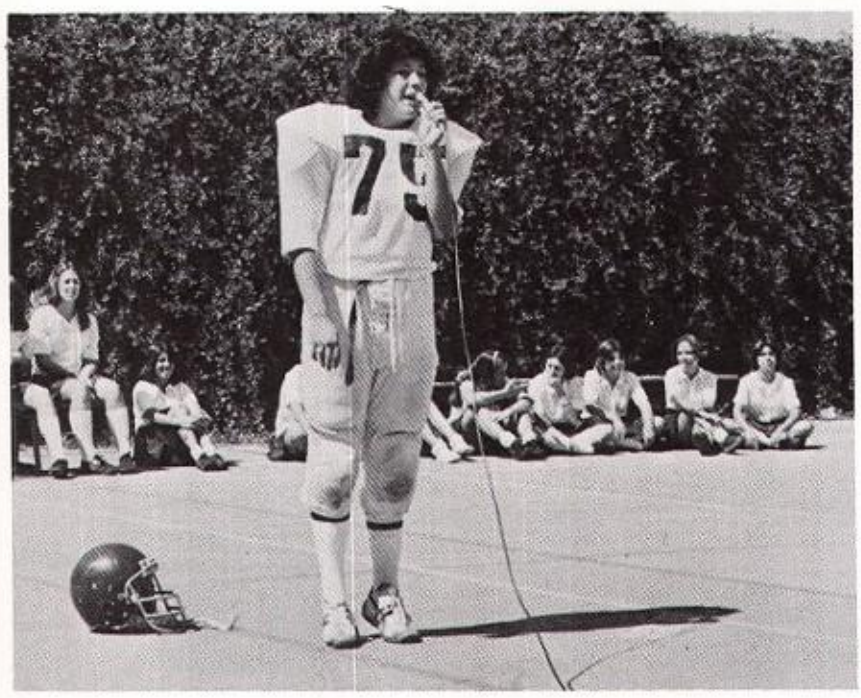
And on lane one is Nanoo-Nanoo, on lane two is Shasbott, and on lane three we have the Garridors and so on. This is not an invasion of Orkans, but an invasion of P.C. Bowling Teams. The P.C. Bowling Teams invaded the Landmark Bowling Alley at the beginning of the school year. The teams are a combination of both faculty and students. Their invasion was a successful one.

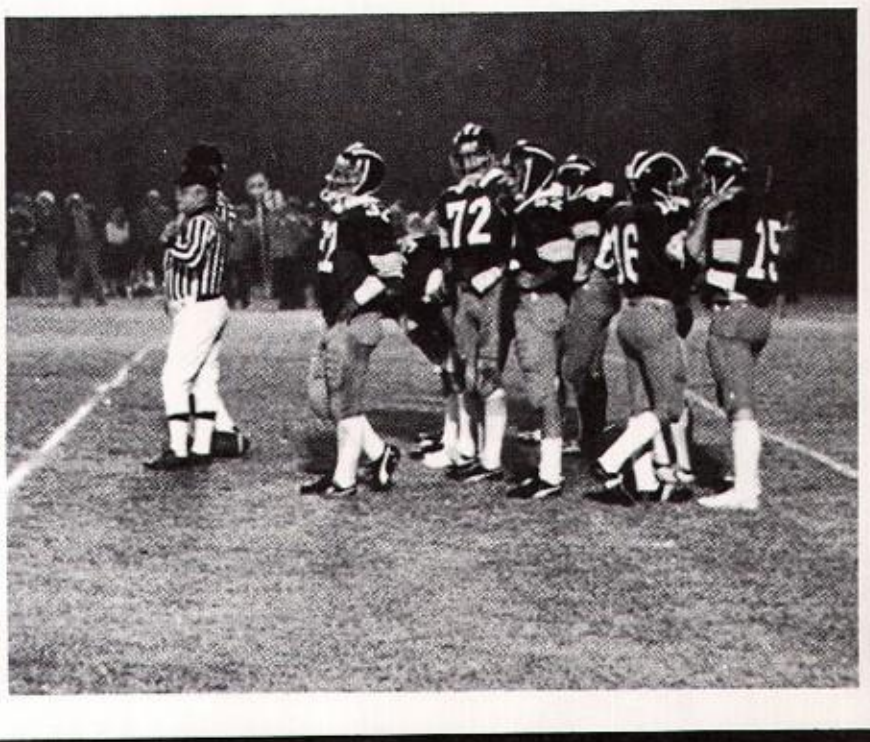


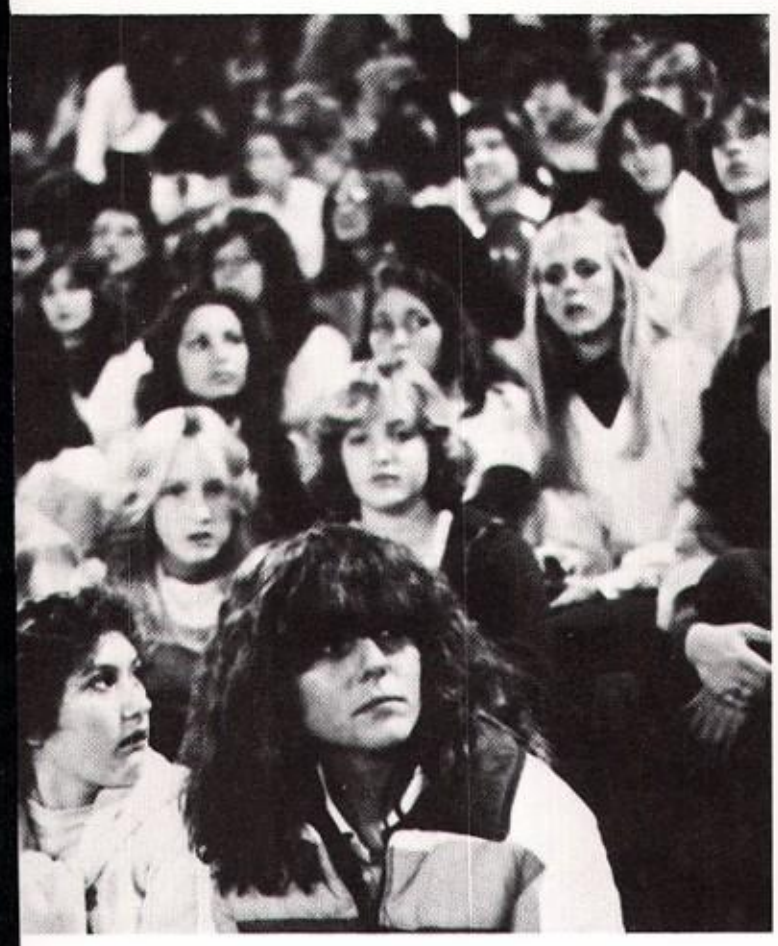


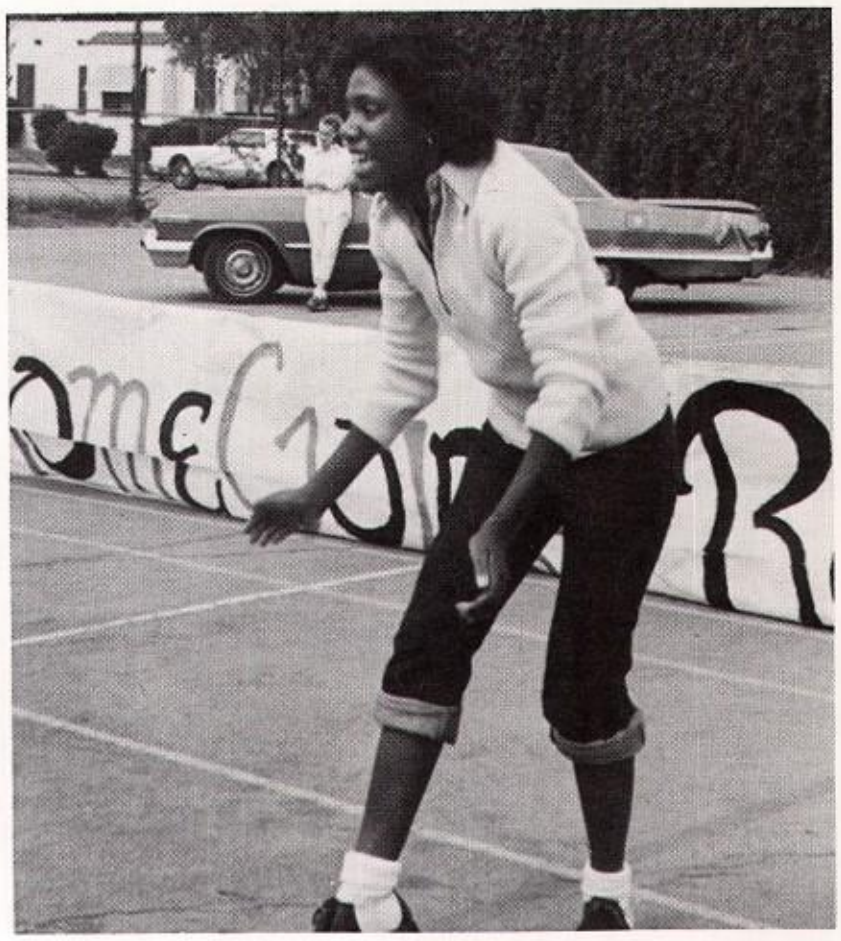












Pacers Are

I don't believe it!

Oops, I missed it!

P.C. Cheer

The P.C. Cheerleaders of 1978-1979 were a very united squad. They practiced many hard, long hours preparing for cheer camp. As a result, the cheerleaders came back with many superior ribbons, a trophy from the varsity squad and a spirit stick for their remarkable spirit.

In the Fall, the squad picked new Freshmen cheerleaders who were very enthusiastic about the new year.

The cheerleaders cheered for the Pacers at the volleyball and basketball games.

You can recognize a P.C. cheerleader anywhere by her smile and enthusiasm.

Dear Big Sisters,

Thank you for everything.
You do not know how much we appreciate it. This has been a great year for us all,
and you were a big part of it.
It meant a lot to us when you let us share in your experiences of your Senior year. All your hopes and dreams were made ours, because of our relationship. Soon you will be leaving us and going your separate ways. We will miss you all deeply. We may never see you again. If we do not, we just wanted you to know that we will never forget you or what you have done for us.
We wish you happiness, health, and success in your future.

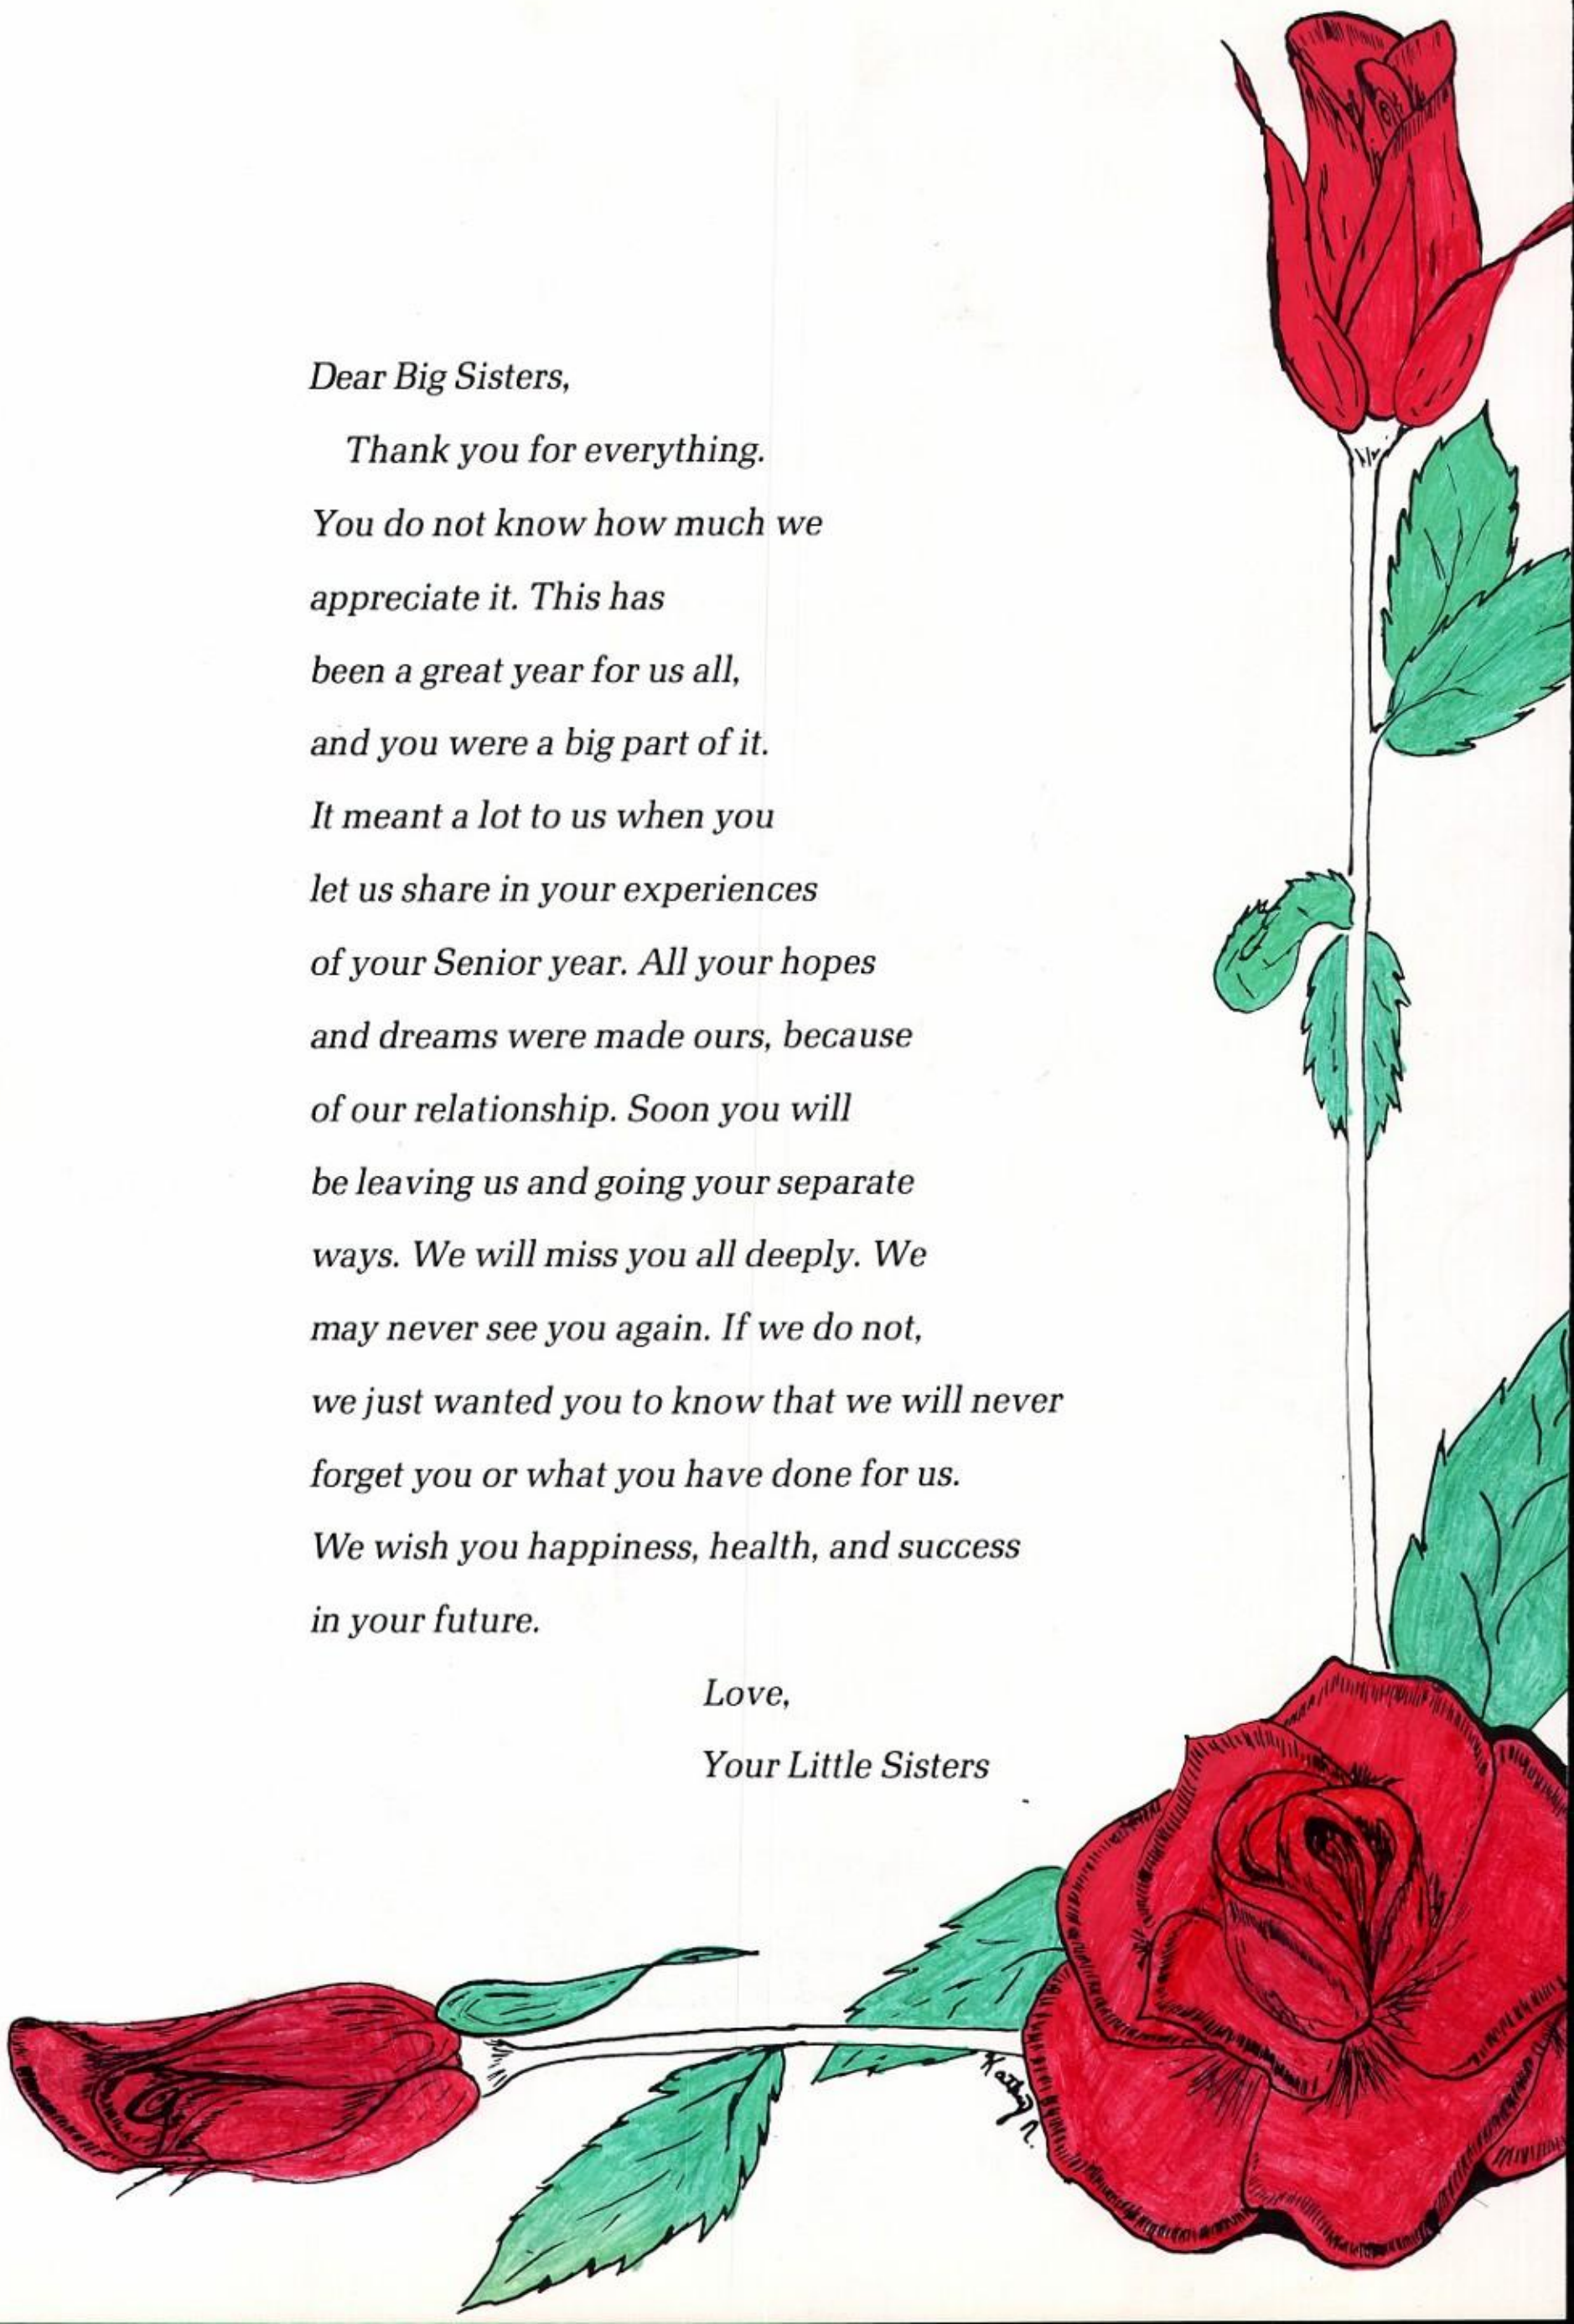
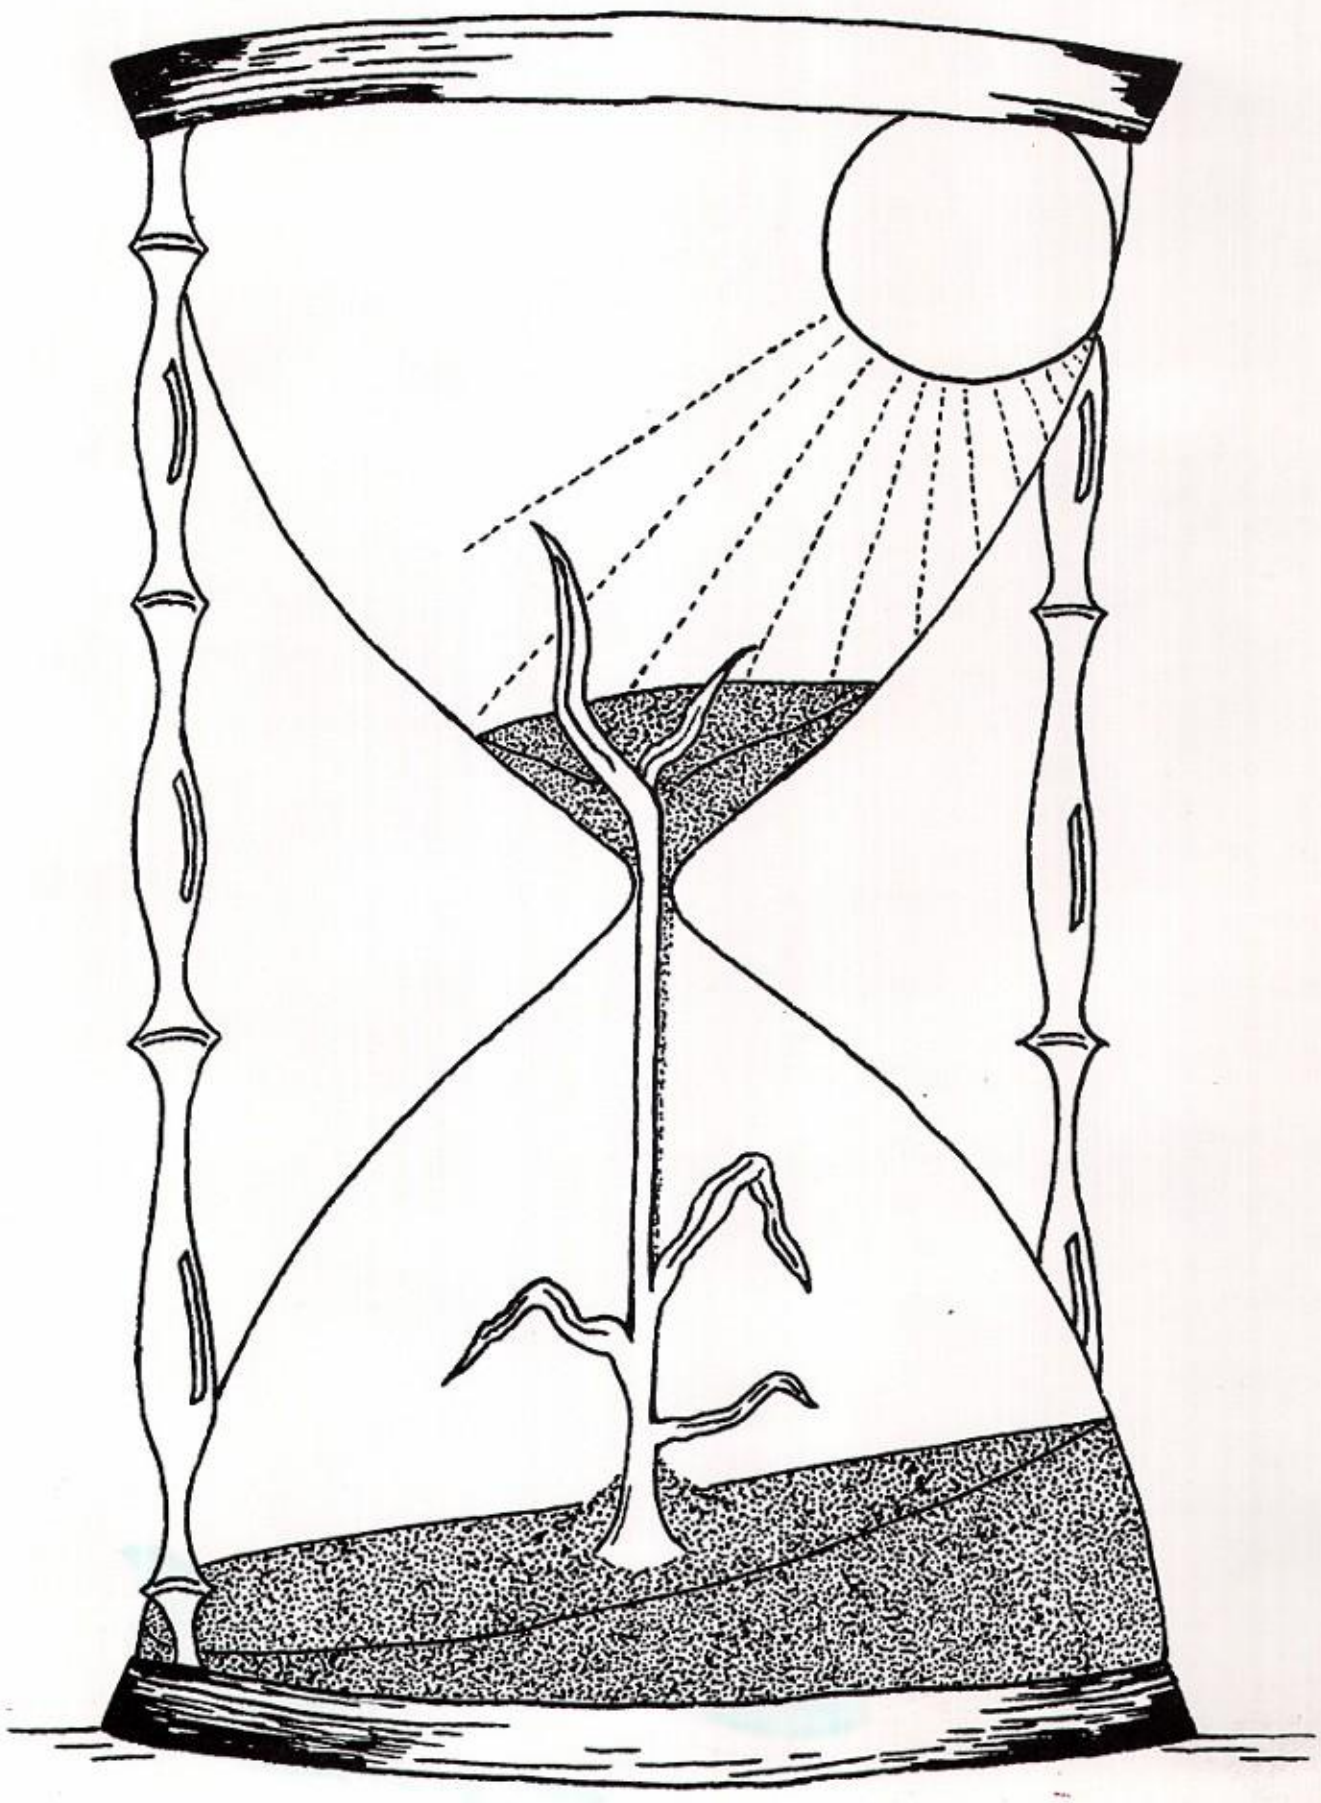
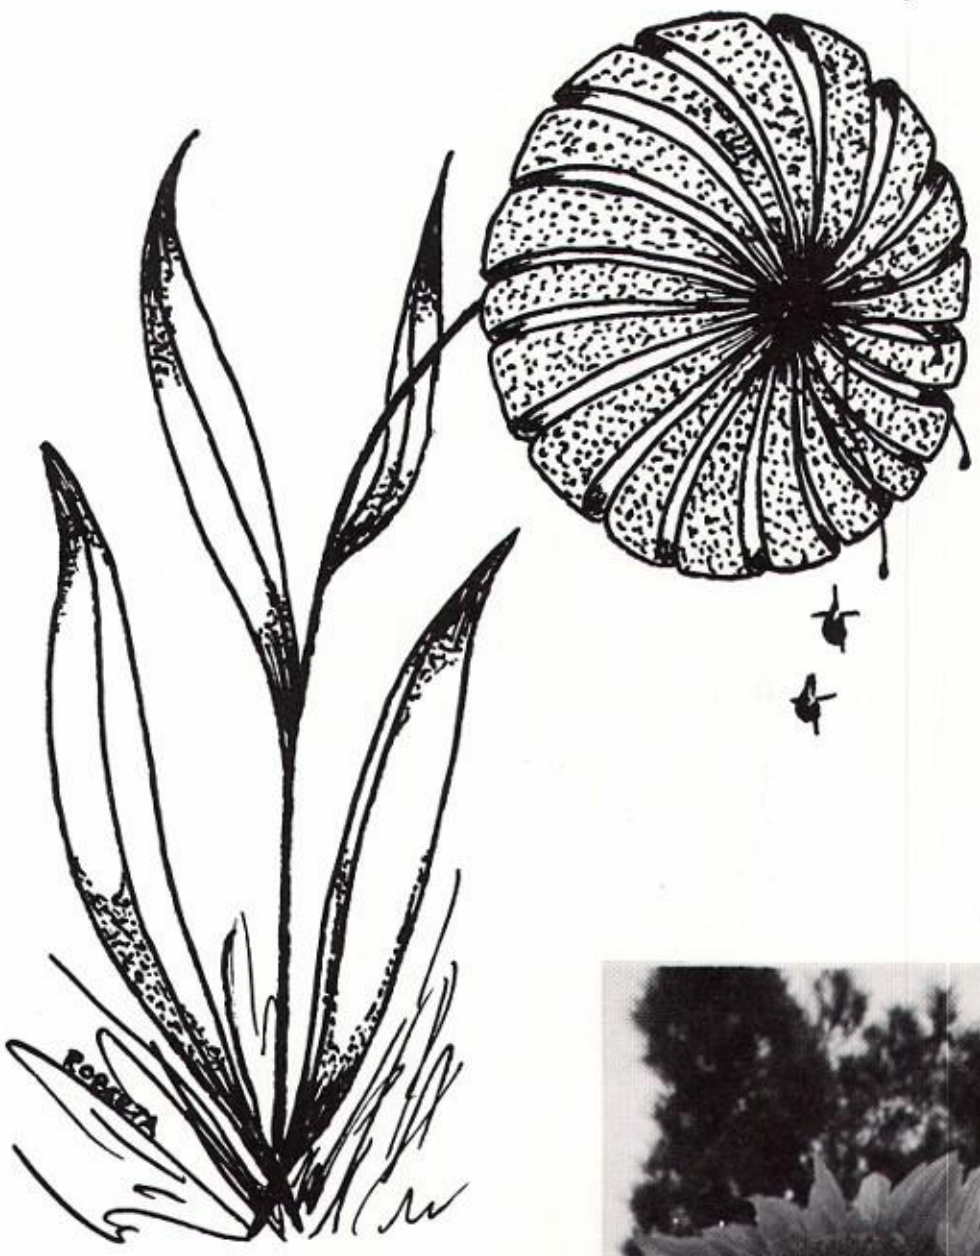
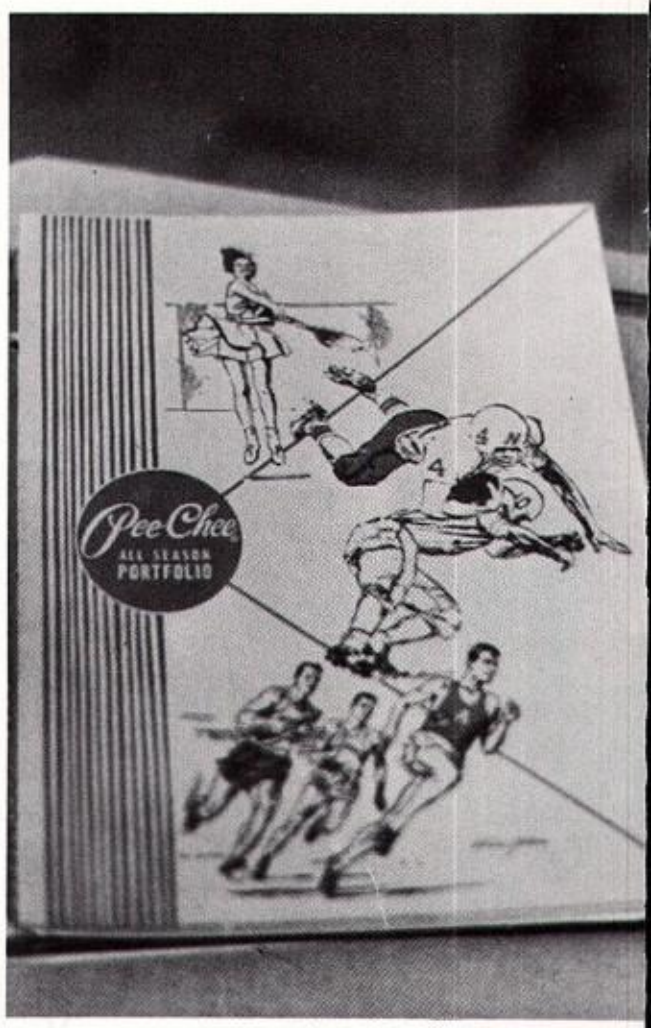
Love,
Your Little Sisters



SIMPLE THINGS...







The first day of school,

104 days later . . .

Bits and pieces of our lives
so many times taken for granted, a silly moment,
a message;
a peaceful minute.

Always there to make us aware that they are unique and beautiful in their own simple way. Andrea

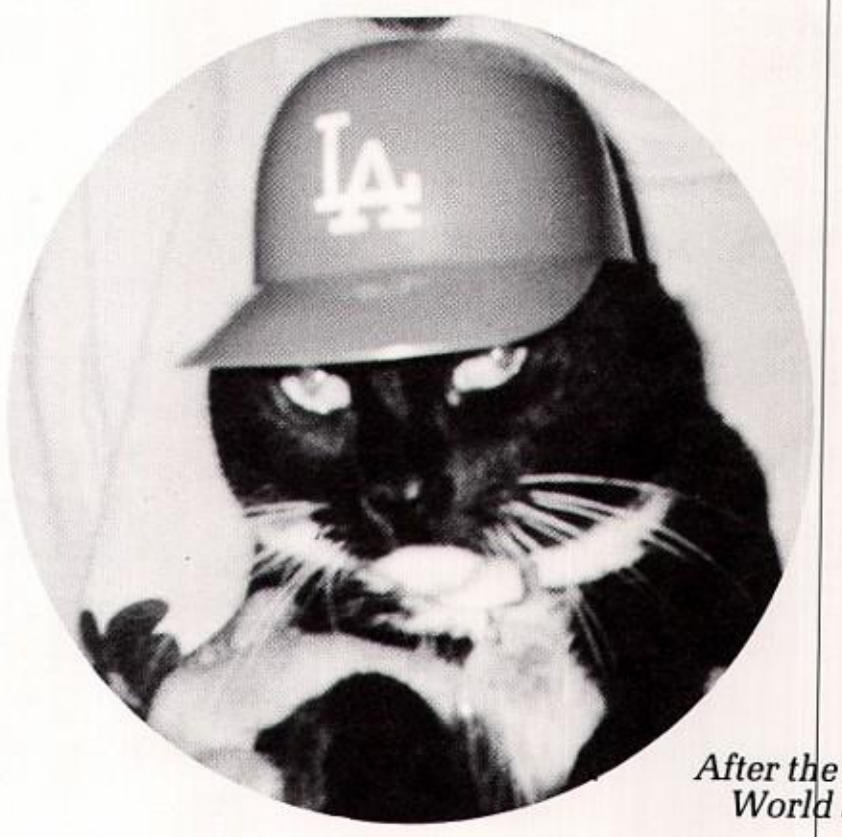
Headless or just brainless?



After the World Series.

The love we share . . .

. . . with someone special

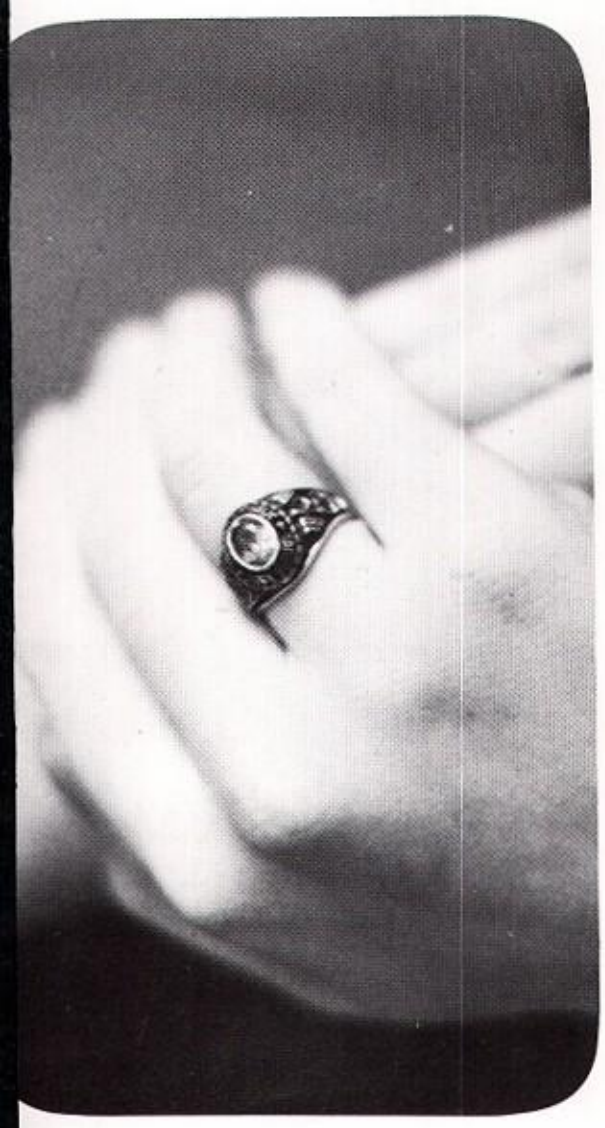
Simple Things
A rose, a smile, a child,
a puppy stretching in the sun,
A poem, a kiss, a shell,
a jogger out for a run,
A ring, a friend, the sun,
all simple things of life
They sing.

Katy

The warmth of a new little puppy.

"Take a lap!"

Special friends.



Happy feelings.

What is a Simple Thing?

— A humble window revealing day after day the appearance of the world outside through its translucency and ability to perceive
— A traffic jam consisting of fender-to-fender car contact which teaches its somewhat annoyed participants the value of patience and tolerance
— A scattered leaf which feels its body cracking and losing its flexibility due to the inevitable cycle of decay but has the courage to be swept from place to place and to adapt to each new surrounding

PowerHouse
PowerHouse
PowerHouse
PowerHouse

— A snowman which has been created and formed from nature's pure and white gift by gentle hands that have brought it life and personality
— A delicate rose proudly displaying its velvety attire and sensuous scent, making the contrast with the lifeless desk top more evident — Something so natural that it is frequently unnoticed, but when captured by the heart is treasured with such affection that its vividness remains eternal.

Gabriela Parente

The little things we used to do
Are simple things
but yet . . .
They hold a place within our hearts
They're moments
we'll never forget.

Q-VO Linda,

Well, it's the end of the (school) year, thank God. I'm glad we got to be real good, good friends. I consider you my best friend cuz you're the only person I can talk to when I need to. I'm glad I got to share this first; kind of rough year with you. I can still remember those fun times we had, also the rough. Lets make sure that there are many more fun, fun times, and I know there will be. Remember at Ralph Welch Park? Ha, ha! It was trippy, if you know what I mean. I kind of wonder if our fighting days are over, or if we are gonna grow out of that stage, but if we don't that all part of being somebody. ¿qué no? Well, take care of yourself and stay out of trouble. Remember I'm here when you need someone to talk to. Hare Jun in the summer with . . . . ?

Q-YO Linda,

Well, it's the end of the (school) year, thank God. I'm glad we got to be real good, good friends. I consider you my best friend cuz you're the only person I can talk to when I need to. I'm glad I got to share this first; kind of rough year with you. I can still remember those fun times we had, also the rough. Lets make sure that there are many more fun, fun times, and I know there will be. Remember at Ralph Welch Park? Ha, ha! It was trippy, if you know what I mean. I kind of wonder if our fighting days are over, or if we are gonna grow out of that stage, but if we don't that all part of being somebody. ¿qué no? Well, take care of yourself and stay out of trouble. Remember I'm here when you need someone to talk to. Hope fun in the summer with . . . .?
